Walteria News Notes

Let's get acquainted, guys and gals! A community picnic for south west Torrance is scheduled for August 24th at the Walteria Park. This is the first community picnic of the area. It is hoped that both old and new residents of this area will come as families and invite their friends to attend. Each family group is to bring its own food. Coffee and milk will be furnished free of charge. Purpose of the project is an old fashioned good time. Adding to the enjoyment of the evening will be a swell program. A thirty-voice male chorus will sing, and also the Torrance Barber Shop Quartet. There will be a continuous free movie shown from 6:30 on for the kiddies. The Skunks and Polecats will duel for two innings of softball as a prelude to the grand finale game between the Walteria Businessmen's team and the Walteria Dukes. Consider this a cordial invitation, and come to have a lot of fun. Be seeing you there. Remember the time—6:30 Friday night, August 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Tom Kirk, Pacific Coast Highway attended a Norton County Kansas Picnic at Centinela Park in Inglewood on Sunday, July 29. Really had a good time from all reports.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Coon and small daughter of Carnegie, Oklahoma are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Hancock, Madison street. Hope they enjoy their stay.

Also visiting in Walteria is Mrs. Corinne Cadice of St. Louis, Missouri, who is a house guest at the home of her cousin, Mrs. Jasper Frisina, 244 Street. With her is her son, Johnny, who is visiting Salvatore Frisina.

Another lovely meeting was held by the Pandora Club on Thursday, July 26, when they met with hostesses Mrs. George Powell, Mrs. Sam San Palo, Mrs. Jasper Frisina, Mrs. J. A. Beasley, and Mrs. Foss Ewert. A very worth while film on the life and problems of children and their parents was shown. It was followed by a singing film during which everyone participated. At the close of the entertainment a delicious lunch was served. Guest of the club were Mrs. Robert Cramer, Las Cocana; Mrs. Carl Cramer, Ward street; Mrs. Lucy Bradford, Neece avenue; and Mrs. Corinne Cadice of St. Louis, Missouri and last but not least was little Frances Elizabeth San Palo, one-month old, who certainly furnished her share of the entertainment. The club will have no meeting in August. The members are going to pool their efforts toward helping make the community picnic sponsored by the business men a big success.

Mary Joe Vaverka of 212 street will have as her guest for a week, Miss Sally Bradford, a school friend from Santa Ana.

Mr. and Mrs. R. Ziske and family, Adolph street, visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ziske of Long Beach, Sunday, July 22.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Kingry of Highland Park, and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. McCaughna of Los Angeles, spent two days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Burgener, Neece avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Ketterling and family of Neece avenue have returned home after a very pleasant vacation at Carlsbad Beach. Mrs. Ketterling and the two children have spent the entire summer there, while Mr. Ketterling joined them later.

We are sorry to hear that Walteria is losing Mr. and Mrs. Howard Fleet and family, Wilmington street, who are leaving this week to make their home in San Diego. The Bradford family of Hawthorne boulevard will reside in the Fleet home for the present.

The regular PTA board meeting will be held Thursday, August 2, at the school Auditorium. Mrs. Glen Hardcastle, president, will preside.

Co-hostesses for the Brunch Club of the Methodist Church in Torrance last Tuesday, July 24, were Mrs. Joan Stewart and Mrs. Betty Mitchell, both of Danah street.

Home from the seas for good (we hope) is James Haner of Danah street. Jim arrived home from San Francisco, where he was discharged from the Navy on Monday, July 23. He has been on active duty since the July following the Korea invasion, and is more than glad to hang up his blues and join his wife and two small children in civilian life. Welcome home, Jim!
